REVERSE OF THE "JEANNETTE" ARCTIC EXPEDITION MEDAL, 1879-1882, TO ALEXY THE HUNTER. PHOTOGRAPH COURTESY OF THE UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY MUSEUM, ANNAPOlis, MARYLAND.
Obverse of the "Jeanette" Arctic Expedition Medal, 1879-1882, in the original presentation case. This medal is named to Walter Sharvell, fireman on the "Jeanette." He was lost with seven others when the boat commanded by Lt. Chipp disappeared in a storm on 13 September 1881. The reverse of this medal is illustrated on the front cover. Medal from the collection of the Washington Navy Yard Museum. Photo by Dr. Charles P. McDowell.
MEDAL ROLL OF OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE "JEANNETTE" ARCTIC EXPEDITION
OF 1879-1882

Lt. George W. DeLong, U.S.N.; Commander
Lt. Charles W. Chipp, U.S.N.; Executive Officer
*Lt. John W. Danehower, U.S.N.; Navigator
*George W. Mellville, U.S.N.; Engineer
J. M. Ambler, U.S.N.; Surgeon
Jerome J. Collins; Meteorologist
*Raymond L. Newcomb; Naturalist
William M. Dunbar; Ice Pilot

(*)John Cole; Boatswain
*James H. Bartlett; Fireman
*George Lauderback; Fireman
#Walter Sharvell; Fireman
Walter Lee; Machinist
Alfred Sweetman; Carpenter
*William F. C. Nindemann; Quartermaster
George W. Boyd
Adolf Dressler
Hans S. Erickson
Carl A. Gortz
Nelse Iverson
Peter E. Johnson
George H. Kuehne
Henry H. Kaack
*Herbert W. Leach
*Frank Mason
*Louis J. Noros
Edward Starr
Henry D. Warren
*Henry Wilson
*Charles Tong Sing
#Ah Sam; Steward/Cook
*Alexey; Hunter
*Aneguin

* - Survived the expedition.
(*) - Died shortly after return to the U.S.
+ - Medal in the collection of the United States Naval Academy Museum.

References:
The Congressional Record, April 1892.
Department of the Navy, Washington, D.C.
National Archives, Washington, D.C.
United States Naval Academy Museum, Annapolis, Maryland.