10. BINTANG SWA BHUWANA PAKSA (Air Force Honors)

Instituted in three classes, in 1968, to be awarded to members of the Air Force.

First Class (Utama)

36 mm moire neck. Dark blue with a thick yellow stripe near each edge and in the center four narrow yellow stripes spaced equally apart.

Second Class (Pratama)

36 mm moire breast. Dark blue with a broad yellow stripe near each edge, and in the center three narrow yellow stripes all equal and equally spaced apart.

Third Class (Nararya)

36 mm breast. As for the Second Class, but with two narrow yellow stripes in the center spaced equally apart.

11. BINTANG BHAYANGKARA (State Police Honors)

This award was instituted in 1961, and revised in 1972, in three classes to be awarded to members of the State Police.

First Class (Utama)

36 mm moire neck. Black with six 1 mm wide yellow stripes spaced equally across the ribbon.

Second Class (Pratama)

36 mm moire breast. Black with five 1 mm wide yellow stripes spaced equally across the ribbon.

Third Class (Nararya)

36 mm breast. Black with four 1 mm wide yellow stripes spaced equally across the ribbon.

12. BINTANG GARUDA

This decoration was instituted in 1959, and revised in 1972, to be awarded to all those members of the Armed Forces who were active in flight duties between 1945 and December 1949, as a Medal of Honor.

36 mm moire breast. Three equal vertical stripes of dark blue, gray, and dark blue. The gray has a silver airplane woven into the center.

13. BINTANG SEWINDU APRI

This award was instituted in 1954, and revised in 1972, to be granted to members of the Indonesian Armed Forces as a Medal of Honor.

36 mm breast. Red with nine very narrow white stripes, including edge stripes, spaced equally across the ribbon.
14. SATYALANCANA BHAKTI (Medal for Faithful Service)
This decoration was instituted in 1958 as the Medal for Faithful Service to the Country.

36 mm breast. Half green, half yellow. In the center a 6 mm wide white stripe.

15. SATYALANCANA TELADAN (Armed Forces Faithful Service Medal)
Instituted in 1958 to reward faithful service by members of the Armed Forces.

36 mm breast. White with, in the center, three 5 mm wide stripes of gold, dark blue, and gold.

16. SATYALANCANA KESETIAAN (Faithful Service Medal)
This medal was created in three classes, in 1958, to reward loyal and faithful service by members of the Armed Forces. The medal is awarded in bronze for eight years service, silver for sixteen years service, and gold for twenty-four years service.

The ribbons are all 36 mm breast. All have three equal vertical stripes of light blue, dark blue, and light blue. As appropriate they have the Roman numerals VIII, XVI, or XXIV embroidered in white in the center of the dark blue.

17. SATYALANCANA PERANG KEMERDEKAAN
This award was instituted in 1958 as the Medal of Faithfulness during the War of Independence. It is found in two types: K.E.I. for World War I and K.E.II. for World War II.

Both ribbons are 36 mm moire breast. The K.E.I. is half red and half white. The K.E.II. is red with a 2 mm wide white center stripe.

18. SATYALANCANA SAPTAMARGA
This medal was instituted as the medal for faithfulness to "the seven pledges" of the Armed Forces, in 1958. The exact conditions of its award are not known.

36 mm moire breast. Red with, in the center, seven dark blue 1 mm wide stripes, 2 mm apart and 9 mm from each edge.

19. SATYALANCANA GERAKAN OPERASI MILITER (G.O.M.)
This decoration was instituted in 1958, in seven different types, to be awarded to members of the Armed Forces, and others, who saw service in the operations leading up to the independence of Indonesia. The British equivalent would probably be a form of General Service Medal.

All the ribbons are 36 mm moire breast, unless otherwise stated.
STL. G.O.M. I
Awarded for the Madiun Insurrection of 1948.
Red with two 2 mm wide blue stripes 2 mm from each edge and from each other and, in the center, a 3 mm wide blue stripe.

STL. G.O.M. II
Awarded for operations against the Dutch in the Bandung/Jakarta area in 1950.
Red with, in the center, five 3 mm wide black stripes, 1 mm apart and 8 mm from each edge.

STL. G.O.M. III
Awarded for operations against the South Moluccas in 1950.
38 mm breast. Bright red with a 3 mm wide yellow stripe, 5 mm from each edge, and, in the center, three 3 mm wide yellow stripes each 1 mm apart.

STL. G.O.M. IV
For operations in South and Southwest Celebes in 1952.
Dark red with five 3 mm wide purple stripes spaced equally across the ribbon.

STL. G.O.M. V
For operations against Darul Islam in West Java in 1949.
Red with 3 mm wide white edges and a 3 mm wide white stripe 7 1/2 mm from each edge, and in the center a 3 mm wide white stripe. This ribbon was originally 34 mm wide of light blue with four 5 mm wide red stripes equally spaced across it.

STL. G.O.M. VI
For operations in Central Java in 1949.
Dark red with two 3 mm wide yellow stripes 1 mm from each other and five mm from each edge, and in the center a 3 mm yellow stripe. This ribbon was originally red with dark green stripes in the proportions as above.

STL. G.O.M. VII
For operations in the Atijeh, North Java, 1953.
39 mm breast. Red with a 3 mm wide green stripe 5 mm from each edge, and in the center three 3 mm wide green stripes 1 mm apart.

20. SATYALANCANA PERINTIS KEMERDEKAAN
This medal was instituted in 1959 as the Medal for Faithfulness of a Pioneer of Independence.
36 mm moire breast. Dark red with five 3 mm wide dark green stripes spaced equally across the ribbon.